American Leaguers Do Well With Bat and Beat Champions, 8 to 7.

Buth and Lewis Make Doubles Which Win Game in Ninth.

By WILLIAM B. HANNA.

Special to Tun Stw and New York Herald. JACKSONVILLE, Fla. March 25 -- The terrestrial champions were routed again by the Yankees this afternoon. They haven't been going well this spring, these Cincinnati World's Champion Reds, and origoute Northmey dropped off hereto-day for another joust with the Yankees, who haven't been going well, either However, they went well with the bat to-day and beat the National Leaguers, 8 to 7, in a battle full of long and hard base double header and the third time in four engagements this month that the New Yorkers have beaten the kingpine of the diamond. It was a much battered lot of kingpits that retreated from the ball field, but they played with great gameness just the same and will hit their clip before long Jacksonville turned out an attendance of remectable size for a change. After the New York-Cincinnati tissie, which was a survival of the fittest with the the Brooklyns and Washington speciators of the first same, took the field for the second, and the novelty of two interleague contests as a double header drew what was a big crowd for this place of about 3,500, which, when you think of it, is nothing to go into

The Yankees won in the ninth-rather. ended it suddenly and positively there. They were leading most of the way, but the poor fielding tied the score with a three run tally in the eighth. Buth led off in the minth with a two bagger off in the night with a two magger to right, and a moment later scored when Duffy Lewis rapped a two bagger against the built sign in the left. The Yankeez heiped the Reds to two runs with a profuse cluster of errors in the sixth inning and the Cholmant fieldng was unsteady all the way-Reds' hitting though much less abund-ant, was more timely than New York's.
